- Fleeting Happiness
- Endless Suffering
- Cycle of Birth & Death

Vedanta - Introduction

Definition:

- Veda = Knowledge, Anta = End
- End of Vedas
- Culmination or Essence of Vedas
- Leads to God (Truth) Realization

Truth:

- Never changes; beyond Time-Space-Causation
- Is One
- Is Beneficial
- Transforms us
- Leads from Truth Speaking-> Truth Seeking-> Truth Seeing

Vedantic Solution To Our Quest

Our Quest:

Goal:

- Eternal Happiness
- End of All Sufferings
- Transcending Birth & Death

Problem:

- Fleeting Happiness
- Endless Suffering
- Cycle of Birth & Death

Vedantic Solution:

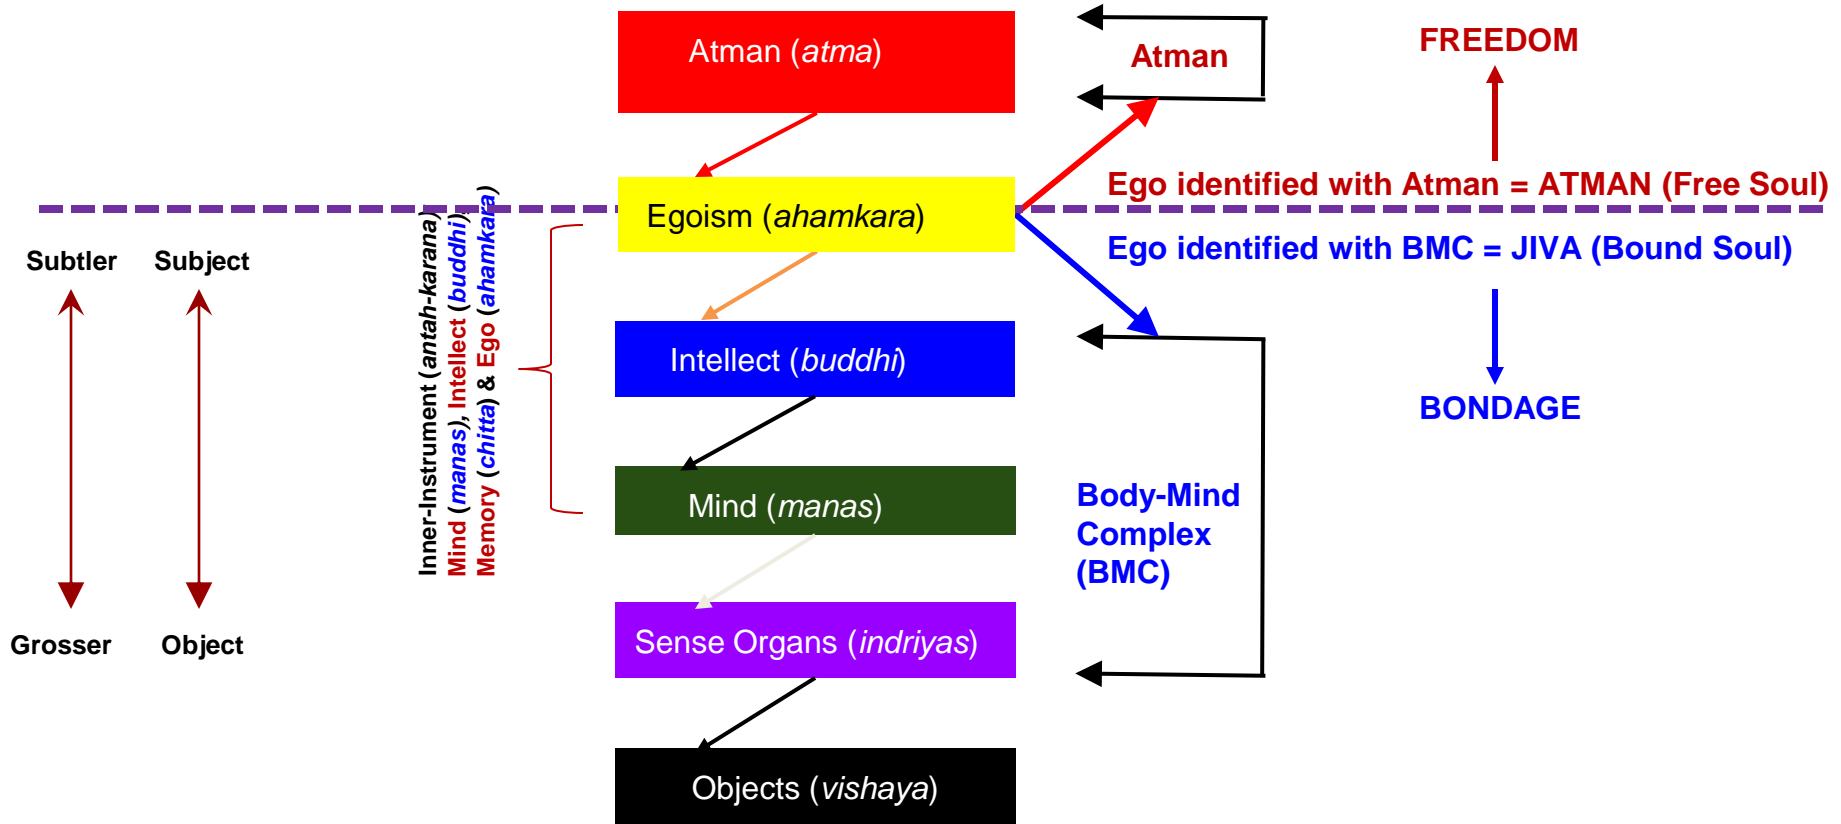

Cause of Problem:

- Ignorance (avidya) of our Real Nature
- Attachment (ragah, sangah) to fleeting Objects & Relations

Remedy:

- Intense Spiritual Practice (sadhana)
- Liberation (mukti/moksha)

Identification & Hierarchy in Embodied Soul

Three Bodies (Sharira Traya)

Three Bodies (Sharira Traya)

- 1) Extremely Subtle & not externally visible
- 2) Cause of Gross & Subtle Body
- 3) State of Ignorance (avidya), Indescribable, Beginningless

Causal Body
(kaarana sarira)

creates

merges

- 1) Subtle & externally not visible
- 2) Product of 5 Subtle Elements
 - 5 Organs of Perception (jnanendriya)
 - 5 Organs of Action (karmandriya)
 - 5 Vital Forces (prana)
 - Mind, Intellect, Memory & Ego
- 3) Instrumental in gathering experience

Subtle Body
(sukshma sarira)

creates

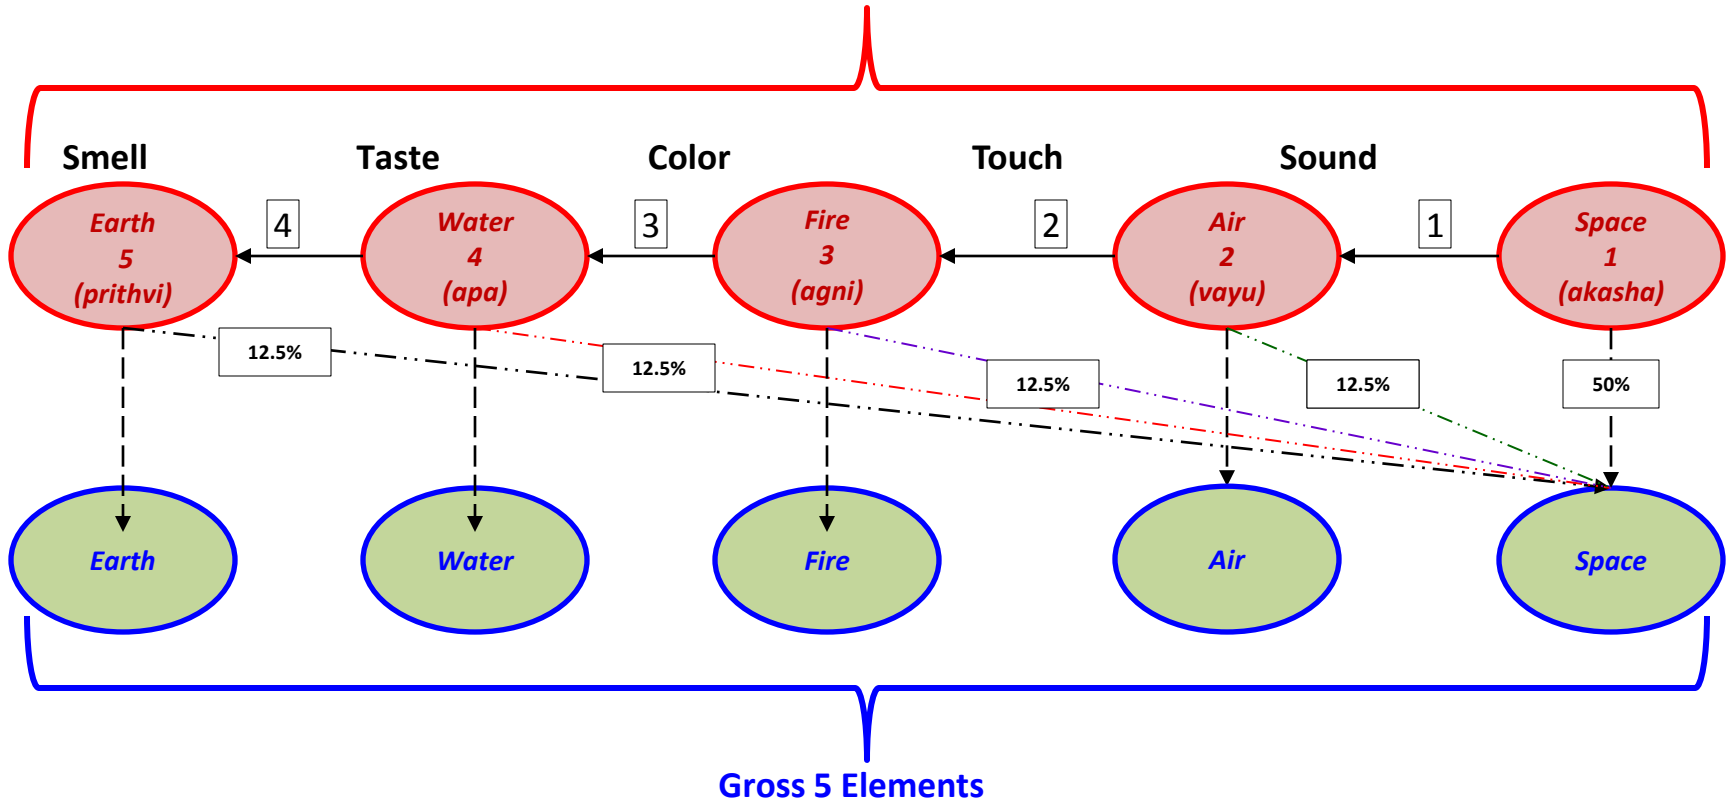

merges

Gross Body
(sthula sarira)

- 1) Gross and externally visible
- 2) Product of 5 Gross Elements (Earth, Water, Fire, Air, Space)
- 3) Subject to 6 changes (Existence, Birth, Growth, Change, Decay & Death)
- 4) Physical medium to experience pain & pleasure

Gross-Subtle Elements Formation

Subtle 5-Elements

Cosmic Body & Individual Body

Ishwara = Sum Total of all Causal Bodies

Hiranyagarbha = Sum Total of all Subtle Bodies

Virat = Sum Total of Gross Bodies

What is Causal Body (karana sarira)?

Why Causal?

- It's the Cause (or Seed) of the Subtle & Gross Body

What's Body?

- Body in Sanskrit is 'sharira' which means perishable

Characteristics :

- Originates with Avidya (ignorance) of the real identity of the Atman
- No objective experience possible with Causal Body
- Contains the Body in Seed form in Dream-less Deep Sleep (sushupti – nitya pralaya)
- Contains the Body in Seed form in Cosmic Dissolution (sushupti – maha pralaya)
- Maya at the Individual Level

What are Dissolutions (Pralayas)?

Pralaya: Cessation of All Activities; Dissipation of Material World

Nitya Pralaya (Constant/Continuing Dissolution):

- When Jiva (Individual) goes into dream-less deep sleep (Sushupti)
- Individual Body/Mind remains dormant as Seed in the Causal Body temporarily until Dream or Waking

Maha Pralaya (Cosmic Dissolution):

- When everything material merges into its source, Prakriti
- Individual Body/Mind remains in the form of Seed until the next Cycle of Cosmic Creation

Atyantik Pralaya (Final Dissolution):

- When Jiva (Individual) attains God-realization aka Liberation aka Moksha
- Dissolution of Individual Body/Mind - Seed of Ignorance is burnt forever
- Jivatma merges into Paramatma

‘Maya’ – An Advaita Vedanta Concept

Maya:

- That which is Not (Ma = “Not”, Ya = “That”)
- By which One becomes Many
- By which World (jagat) appears to be Real (satyam)
- By which Impermanent (anityam) appears to be Permanent (nityam)
- Functions in the world of Duality (vyavaharika)
- Functions not in Non-dual (paramarthika) state
- Creative capacity of the Ishwara
- Ishwara controls Maya, but Jiva is controlled by Maya
- “Maya is a statement of fact” – Swami Vivekananda

How Maya affects:

- Is Real to those => who are in it
- Is Indescribable to those => who try to understand it
- Is Non-existent to those => who have gone beyond it

MAYA (COSMIC & INDIVIDUAL)

BRAHMAN

MAYA

COSMIC

ATMAN

MAYA

JIVA

INDIVIDUAL

BRAHMAN (ATMAN)

- = Pure Consciousness
- = Sat-Chit-Ananda
- = Changeless
- = Real
- = One (Substance)
- = Impersonal God

MAYA (COSMIC/INDIVIDUAL)

- = Cosmic & Individual Mind
- = Time-Space-Causation
- = Changeful (Ephemeral)
- = Neither Real nor Unreal
- = Creates Many-ness

ISHWARA (COSMIC)

- = Reflected Consciousness
- = Saguna Brahman/Mahamaya
- = Cosmic Body/Mind Complex
- = Experience of "I am"
- = Personal God with Attribute
(suddha sattva guna)

JIVA (INDIVIDUAL)

- = Reflected Consciousness
- = Experience of "I am X", "I am Y" etc
- = Embodied Soul with Attribute
(mixed sattva, rajas & tamas guna)

Brahman (Consciousness) associated with Cosmic Maya = Ishwara
Brahman (Consciousness) associated with Individual Maya = Jiva
Brahman (Consciousness) is the substratum of Maya

What are the Powers of Maya?

Veiling Power (Avarana-Sakti):

- Conceals our Real Nature (i.e. nitya, shuddha, buddha, mukta svarupaya)
- Experience of “I did not know anything” (ex: in Deep-sleep)

Projecting Power (Vikshepa-Sakti):

- Creates the illusion of Multiplicity (separation from Brahman or Atman)
- Falsely superimposes Body-Mind on Atman and experiences Body-Mind as Reality
- Falsely superimposes Universe on Brahman and experiences Universe as Reality
- Experience of “I am so and so”, “I am sick” “I am old” (ex: in Waking & Dream State)

Levels of Maya?

Higher (Vidya) & Lower (Avidya) Maya :

- Avidya & Vidya are both within Maya
- In absence of Vidya (knowledge of One), Avidya (knowledge of Many) becomes Reality
- Avidya Maya is to be conquered by Vidya Maya
- Vidya Maya is to be conquered by Knowledge of Reality

Characteristics of Avidya Maya :

- To see separation as the Reality
- Leads to Selfishness, Attachment, Desire, Anger, Greed, Delusion, Loss of Memory etc.
- Leads to Manifoldness
- Binds us

Characteristics of Vidya Maya :

- Truthfulness, Unselfishness, Contentment, Self-restraint, Forbearance, Discrimination, Dispassion etc.
- Leads to Oneness
- Releases us (from Bondage)

Pancha Kosha (Five Sheaths) - 1

What is a Kosha?

- Covering/Sheaths
- Limitation

What does it limit ?

- Limits Existence (Sat)
- Limits Knowledge (Chit)
- Limits Bliss (Ananda)

How does it limit ?

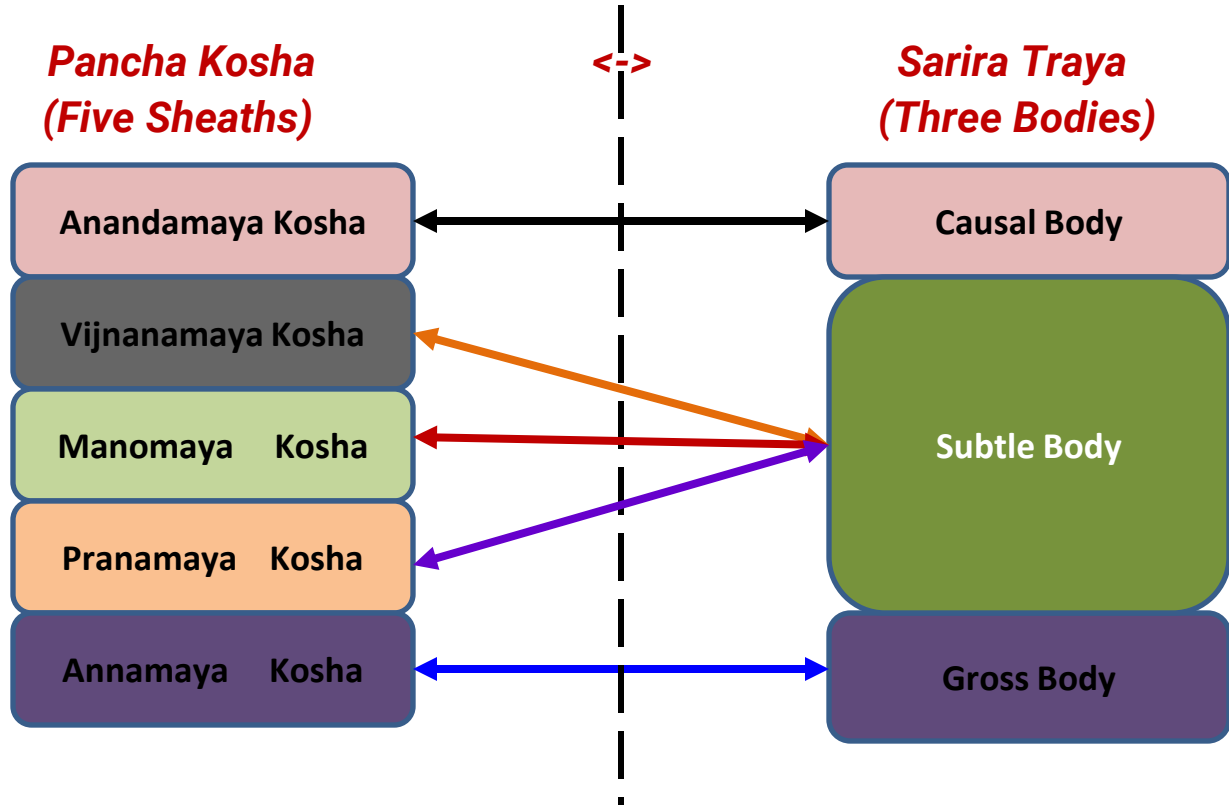

- Creates (chain) Dependencies
- Separation from Self

What are the Koshas?

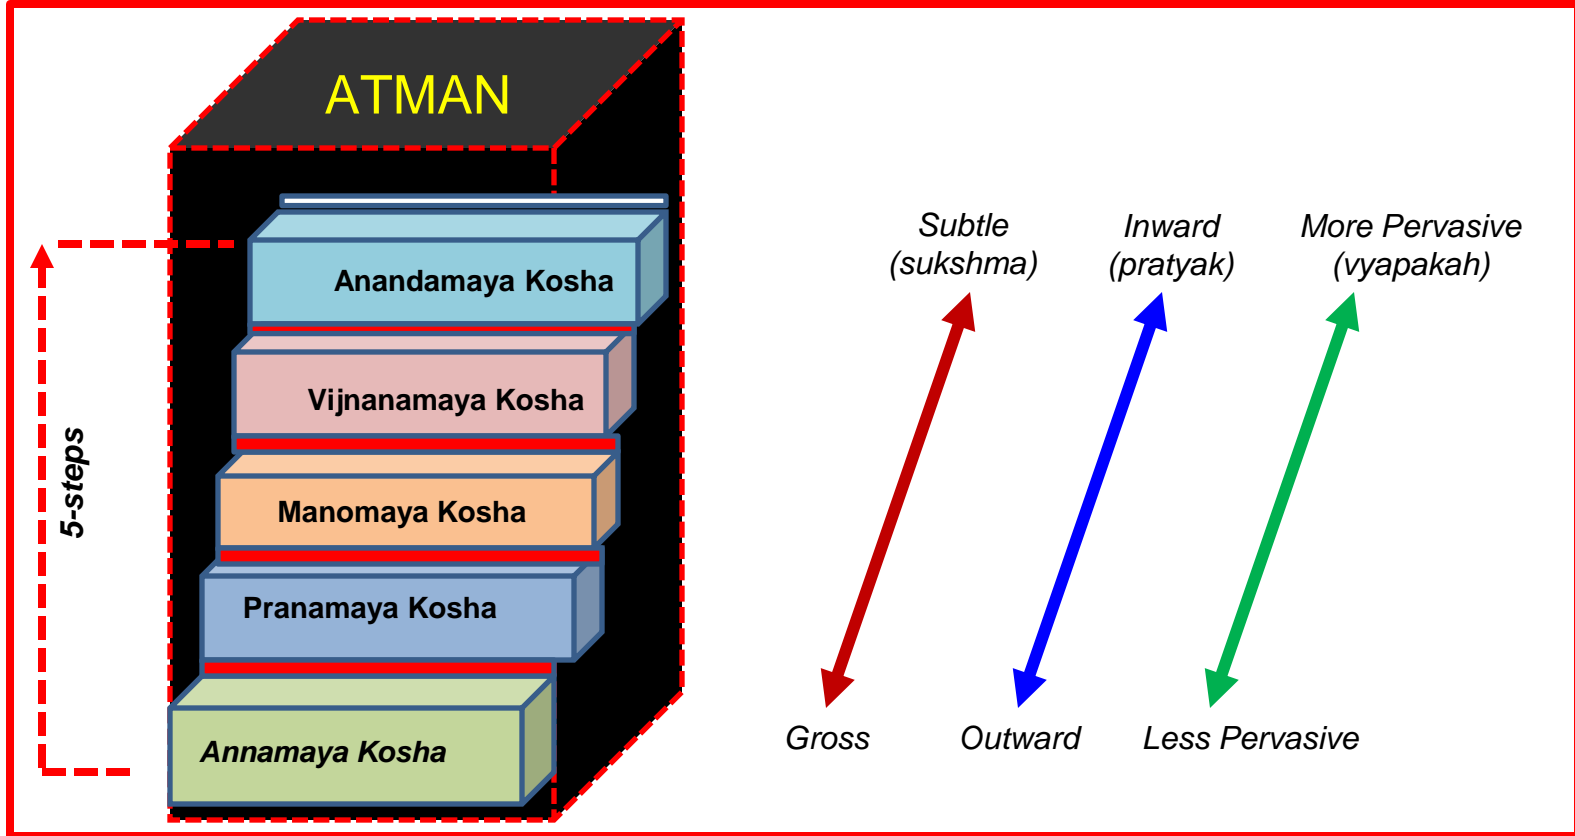

- Annamaya (Physical or Material or Food)
- Pranamaya (Vital Forces/Energy)
- Manomaya (Thoughts, Ideas, Attachments, Aversion etc.)
- Vijnanamaya (Knowledge, Understanding, Decision, Discernment etc.)
- Anandamaya (Blissful)

Pancha Kosha - Sarira Traya Mapping

Five Layers to Transcend

Nature & Relationship between Sheaths

What's the nature of the Koshas?

- Grosser the Kosha -> More Limitation-> Less Happiness
- Subtler the Kosha -> Less Limitation -> More Happiness
- Every Kosha is intimately related to every other Koshas
- For every action/reaction all 5 Koshas work

Nature of the Five Sheaths

Analysis of Five Sheaths - I

➤ Why Analysis of Five Sheaths Important?

- Positive experience ('iti iti' – not 'neti neti')
- Doors to Realization of Brahman
- Deals exclusively with Eternal Happiness (Ananda) which is our Goal
- Step-by-step Analysis of:
 - Degrees of Ananda
 - How to Maximize Happiness
- Extremely Rational/Scientific
- Jnana (Knowledge) mixed with Bhakti (Devotion)
- Aligned with Sri Ramakrishna's Teachings

➤ Psychology of Happiness (Ananda):

- How do we become Happy?
- Objective & Subjective Happiness
- Defects of Objective Happiness

Pancha Kosha Analysis - II

➤ Teachings of Varuna To Bhrgu:

- That From Which Everything Has Come
- That In Which Everything Abides
- That To Which Everything Returns
- That is Brahman; Seek to Know That
- Practise Meditation (Upasana) & Self-Restraint (Tapas)

“yato vā imāni bhūtāni jāyante; yena jātāni jīvanti; yat prayanty abhisamviśanti; tad vijijñāsasva; tad brahmeti” – Taittiriya Up. 3.1.1

➤ Techniques of Analysis Used:

- Arundhati (Darshana) Nyaya
- From Gross to Subtle
- From Known to Unknown
- Individual Objectivity -> Universal Objectivity
- Universal Objectivity -> Universal Subjectivity

Pancha Kosha Analysis - III

- Results of Meditation on Universal (Upasana):
- Purification, Concentration, Expansion of Mind
 - Individual Ego (vyasti abhimana) replaced by Universal Ego (samasti abhimana)
 - Satiation of the Present Layer comes
 - Seeks for more Quantitative and Qualitative Happiness
 - Awareness of the Higher, Subtler, Inward & more Pervading Reality Comes
 - Previous Reality (ex: Annamaya Atma) becomes a Limitation (ex: Annamaya Kosha)
 - Reality shifts to the next Higher/Subtler Layer (ex: Pranamaya Atma)

Pancha Kosha Analysis - IV

➤ Starts from Annamaya - the Grossest Sheath:

- Guru instructs to practice Self-Restraint (Tapas), Meditation (Upasana)
- Disciple Meditates on the Source (Universal) of all Material/Physical/Gross Body
- Individual Objectivity is merged in the Universal Objectivity
- Realizes Annam is Brahman (“Annam Brahmeti Vyajanat”)
- Disciple Goes back to Guru
- Guru instructs to practice further Self-Restraint (Tapas), Meditation (Upasana)
- Further Meditation reveals Higher, Subtler, Inward & More Pervading Reality
- Realizes Prana is Brahman (“Prano Brahmeti Vyajanat”)
- Disciple sees Anna as the Seen, Insentient, Impermanent compared to Prana
- Annamaya Atma becomes Annamaya Kosha

.....
.....(continues for other Layers)

➤ Ultimately Realizes:

- Even Anandamaya is a Kosha (Limitation)
- Brahmakara Vritti remains
- Self/Atman/Brahman is the only Reality

Three Gunas (Gunatrayas)

Two Principles of Sankhya Philosophy

- Purusha: Conscious, Intelligent & Inactive
- Prakriti: Unconscious, Non-intelligent & Active

Interdependence of Purusha & Prakriti

- Activity of Prakriti – Influenced by the Intelligence of Purusha
- Cooperation between P & P - Necessary for Evolution

What are ‘Gunas’?

- Constituent Elements of Prakriti viz. Sattva, Rajas & Tamas
- That which binds Soul to the World
- Imperceptible – only known from their Effects
- Gunas are Always together, can never be separated

What is the Goal?

- Outgrow the Inferior Gunas, Ascend to the Superior Gunas
- Transcend Gunas, to be one with Purusha

Gunas & 24-Cosmic Principles

Nature of Three Gunas

Sattva	Rajas	Tamas
Nature of Pleasure	Nature of Pain	Nature of neither Pleasure nor Pain
Pure, Bright, Revealing	Impure, Active, Projecting	Impure, Veiling & Inactive
Sharpness, Alertness	Greed, Cruelty, Desire to obtain	Indiscrimination, Lethargy
Goal : Overcome Tamas with Rajas, Rajas with Sattva. Sattva leading to Purusha.
Fearlessness, Contentment		Procrastination

- Stored in Seed Form
- Destroyed by Knowledge

Prarabdha Karma:

- Part of Sanchita Karma that has begun to bear fruit
- Past Karma responsible for the present body
- Cannot be avoided or changed
- Destroyed by enjoying or suffering only

Kriyamana /Agami Karma:

- That which is being accumulated now that will affect future births.
- Kriyamana is everything that we produce in current life
- Flow in to Sanchita Karma and consequently shape our future lives
- Destroyed by Knowledge

Cyclic Human Development

Ultimate Expression of Gunas & Freedom

There is no possibility of ever having pleasure without pain, good without evil; for life itself is just lost equilibrium. What we want is freedom — not life, nor pleasure, nor good. Creation is infinite, without beginning and without end — the ever-moving ripple in an infinite lake. There are yet unreached depths in this lake where equilibrium has been regained; but the ripple on the surface is always there. The struggle to regain the balance is eternal.

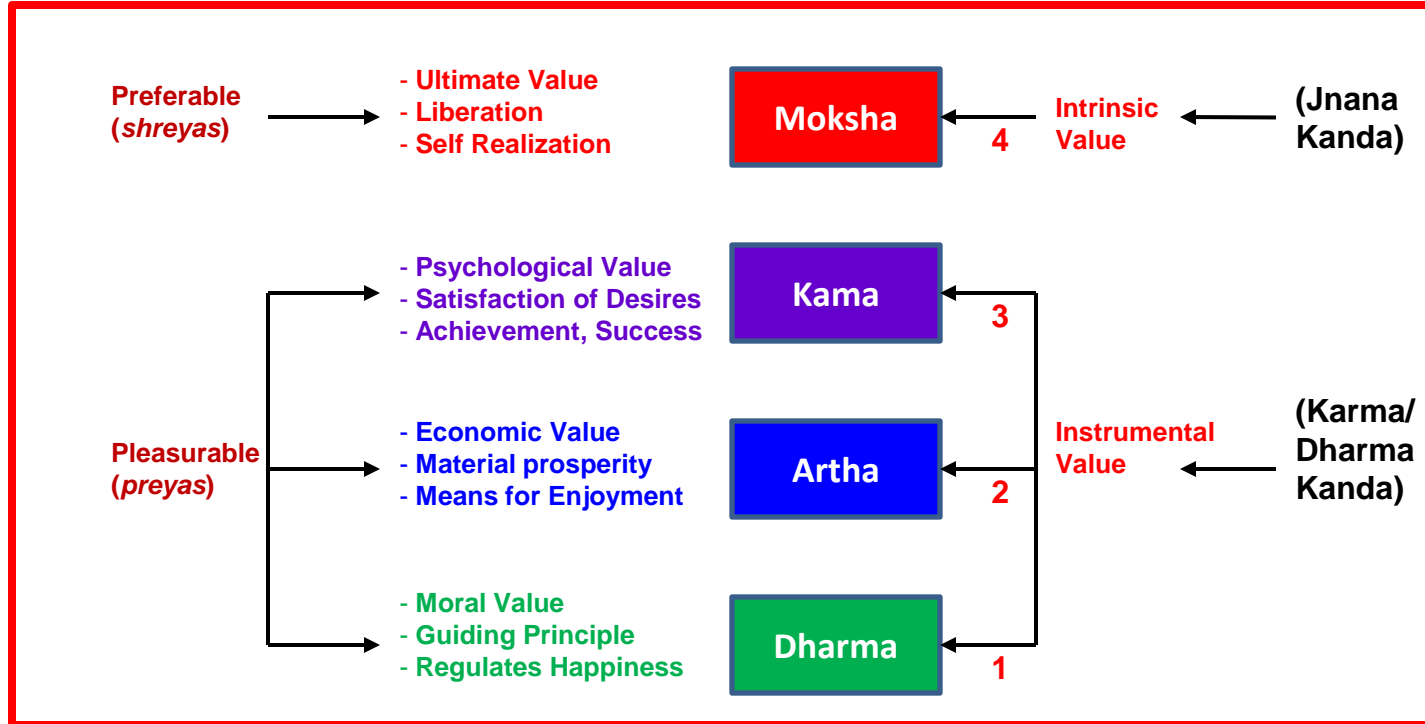

To regain the balance we must counteract tamas by rajas, then conquer rajas by sattva, the calm, beautiful state that will grow and grow until all else is gone. Give up bondage. Become a son of God, be free, and then you can “see the Father,” as did Jesus. Infinite strength is religion and God. Avoid weakness and slavery. You are the Soul only if you are free; there is immortality for you only if you are free; there is God only if He is free.

Here in this foreign land why should we wander aimlessly in stranger’s guise?
Let us go back, O mind, to our own abode!*

Are strangers to you; none is your own.
Why do you thus forget yourself,
In love with strangers, O my mind?
Why do you thus forget your own?*
- 3: *Ascend the path of Truth, O mind!
With Love as the lamp to light your way.
As your provision for the journey, bring with you
The virtues, carefully concealed;
for, like two highwaymen, Greed and delusion wait to rob you of your wealth.*

- 4: *And keep beside you constantly,
as guards to shelter you from harm,
Mind-control (shama) and Sense-control (dama).*

A welcome rest-house by the road;
There rest your weary limbs awhile, asking your way,
If ever you should be in doubt, of him who are there.*

Then loudly shout the name of the Lord;
For He is Ruler of that road,
And even Death must bow to Him.”*

 - Satya - Truthfulness
 - Arjava - Straightforwardness (no double dealing)
 - Daya - Compassion
 - Dana - Charity
 - Ahimsa - Not hurting others by thought, word or deed

Preparatory Steps for Devotion – Step #6 & #7

6. anavasada (avoid despondency):

- Despondency is not Religion
- By Being Pleasant & Smiling takes one nearer to God
- Minds that are Gloomy & Dull cannot love God
- It's diabolism to say " I'm so miserable'
- God is not to be reached by the weak, one must be strong

7. anuddharsha (avoid excessive merriment):

- Mind in excessive merriment becomes fickle, never becomes calm
- Every excesses will have their reactions
- Tears & Laughter are too extreme – be Cheerful but Calm

Self-Surrender (sharanagati) – Step #1

1. anukulasya samkalpah:

- Entertaining thoughts favorable to devotion
- Willing to do anything that pleases the Lord
 - Willing to make oneself fit to receive His Grace
 - Following Instructions of Guru
 - Attending Satsang
 - Doing regular spiritual practice

Self-Surrender (sharanagati) – Step #2

2. pratikulasya varjanam:

- Rejecting thoughts unfavorable to devotion
- Willing to give up anything that displeases the Lord
 - Willing to give up obstacles: pleasures/name/fame/power
 - Willing to give up attachment to objects & associations
 - Willing to give up useless worldly talks
 - Willing to give up anger, jealousy, pride, hypocrisy etc.

Self-Surrender (sharanagati) – Step #3

3. raksisyati iti visvasah:

- Having firm faith that:
 - God is my only Protector
 - God is protecting me All-the-Time
 - God is not just ‘Wish-fulfiller’ but my ‘Well-wisher’
 - God is Kind & Compassionate
 - His Love for me is Unconditional
 - I’m his child, He will never abandon me
 - I don’t have to worry – I’m protected by His blessings despite what I’m (“janaki natha sahaya kare jaba, kaun bigad kare nara tero....”)

Self-Surrender (sharanagati) – Step #4

4. goptritva varanam:

- Actually seeking refuge in the Lord
- Praying for God's Protection, Blessings & Grace
- “You've guided me thus far, take me further, guide me to Truth”
- “I've come to You as I am, make me what You want me to be”

Self-Surrender (sharanagati) – Step #5

5. atma-niksepa:

- Completely surrendering oneself to God
- Falling at the feet of the Lord and surrendering to the Lord
- “I’ve no will/wish of my own – I’m like the flute in your hands”
- No resistance or reservations that obstructs total surrender
- Giving up everything to the Lord including the ego

Self-Surrender (sharanagati) – Step #6

6. karpanyea:

- To know that Steps 1 thru 5 are possible ONLY by God's Grace
- So long as we think we can do things by our own effort, Lord does not interfere
- As soon as we seek refuge, surrender and reveal our helplessness, Lord comes forward and lifts us

Composition of Rumi, the Sufi Mystic

*“There is no love greater than love with no object for then you, yourself have become love itself.
When the compulsive, tyrannical self sees the inside beauty, it melts.
You have suffered much agony,
but you are still behind a veil,
because dying was the one thing needed
and you haven’t fulfilled it.
Your agony will not end until you die.
You cannot reach the roof without ascending the ladder.
O Prince, you will not experience the wreck of this ship
until you put into it the last kilo that will sink it.
Wield the mace against yourself and shatter egoism to pieces.
Let your candle be extinguished.
Know that as long as our little stars are visible
the sun of the world has not appeared.*

Sage Patanjali - Invocation

ॐ। योगेन चित्तस्य पदेन वाचां। मलं शरीरस्य च वैद्यकेन ॥
योऽपाकरोत्तं प्रवरं मुनीनां। पतञ्जलिं प्राञ्जलिरानतोऽस्मि ॥

I bow down to the eminent Sage Patanjali who removed impurities of the Mind thru Yoga, of Speech thru Grammar and of the Body thru Medicine.

Sage Patanjali - Short Biography

- Lived between ~400 to 200 BC as conjectured by scholars & historians
- Incarnation of 'Adishesha' (cosmic serpent upon which Lord Vishnu rests)
- Practicalized Theories of Sankhya Philosophy
- Father of 'Yoga' – one of the 6-Systems of Philosophy (Sada-darshana)
- Compiled world renowned Yoga Aphorisms (Sutras)
- Prescribed Eight-limbed Path (Ashtanga Yoga) for Liberation (Kaivalya)
- Sage, Philosopher, Scholar, Grammarian, Authority of Science of Medicine etc.

What is Yoga?

That which:

- removes obstacles from the path to Self-realization
- makes the mind tranquil/equanimous in the midst of disturbances
- helps one to learn lessons from within prakriti
- leads from lower happiness to higher happiness
- helps to become an efficient worker
- brings harmony between thought, word & deed
- takes one beyond the gunas - sattva, rajas & tamas
- separates purusha (consciousness) from prakriti (inertness)
- liberates a soul

Raja Yoga - How does it help?

Teaches Importance of Self-control:

- Self control makes Body & Mind in tune with nature
- Self-Control conserves energy to be channelized to Higher Ideals

Helps to Develop Right Understanding & Attitude:

- Focus on multiplicity creates differences/anxiety/conflicts
- Focus on unity dissolves the differences/anxiety/conflicts
- Likes/Dislikes & Clinging to Life increases mental restlessness
- Emphasis on developing Subject-driven, Conscious & Inward Thoughts
- Concentration is the essence of all knowledge (external or internal)
- Goal is not 'seeking pleasure' but 'seeing truth'

Step-by-step Ascent to Spiritual Illumination:

- Persistent Practise of concentration & Dispassion
- From Many To One To No Thought

Worldly Concentration Vs. Meditation – Part 1

Worldly Concentration	Meditation
1. Follows natural process of perception	1. Reverses natural process of perception
2. Focus is on external object of interest	2. Focus is on the internal spiritual heart
3. Forcibly drives the mind outward	3. Result of natural inwardness
4. Contact with external world isn't cut off	4. Contact with external world is cut off
5. Multiple Sense Organs are active	5. Only One Sense Organ (Mind) is active

Wordly Concentration Vs. Meditation - Part 2

	Worldly Concentration		Meditation
7.	Result of attachment to objects supported by intense worldly aspirations	7.	Result of detachment supported by intense spiritual aspirations and faith
8.	Attempts to create, leading to diversity & conflict	8.	Attempts to stop creation and seek the source of experience, leading to unity & peace
9.	Object of interest is the driving force for concentration	9.	Intellect (seat of Intuition & Will) is the driving force
10.	Entering into an object and discovering its nature and relationship with other objects	10.	Entering into and discovering an eternal living & loving relationship with the object of meditation

Wordly Concentration Vs. Meditation - Part 3

Worldly Concentration

12. Irrespective of the sincerity and intensity of concentration, the object of concentration remain separate from the subject (person concentrating)

Meditation

12. Goal of meditation is to merge the object of concentration and subject through transformation in the subject over time

Patanjali Yoga – Five States of Mind

1. Dull Mind (Mudha):

- Unfit to think the subtle principles of Yoga
- Mind full of worldly thoughts, infatuations etc

2. Scattered Mind (Kshipta):

- Persistent restlessness
- Have neither patience nor intelligence to comprehend Spiritual Principles
- Intense negative thoughts (jealousy, anger etc.) - not a sign of Yogic Concentration

3. Distracted mind (Vikshipta):

- Remains calm at times but easily becomes disturbed
- Concentration does not last very long

4. One-Pointed Mind (Ekagra):

- Can concentrate on one thought and one thought alone
- Same thought arises in unbroken succession, even in the dreams

5. Suspended Mind (Niruddha):

- Remains absorbed in the thought of the Self

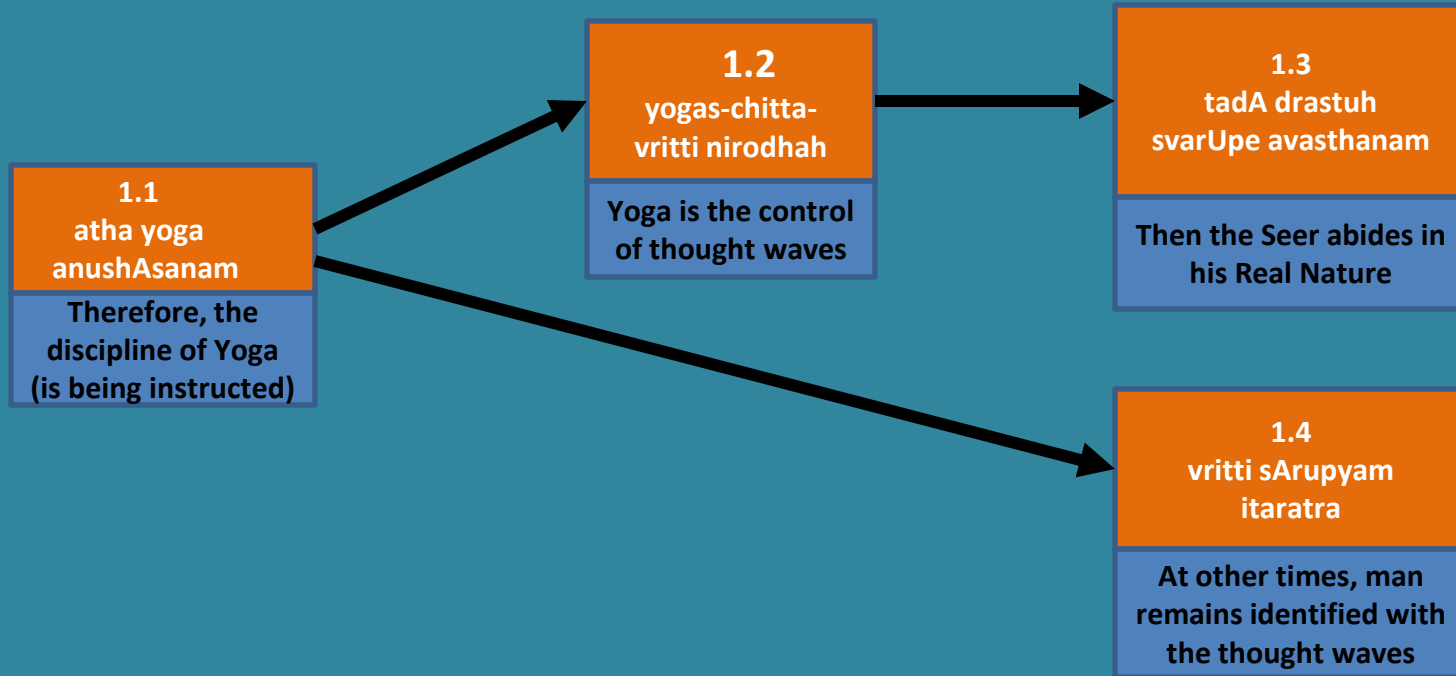

Patanjali Yoga – (States of Mind vs. Gunas)

States of Mind	Gunras
Mudha (Inert/Dull Mind)	Preponderance of Tama Guna
Kshipta (Scattered Mind):	Preponderance of Raja Guna
Vikshipta (Distracted Mind):	Preponderance of Raja Guna
Ekagra (One-pointed Mind):	Preponderance of Sattva Guna
Niruddha (Absorption in Self):	Preponderance of Sattva Guna

Patanjali Yoga – 4 Chapters

Patanjali Yoga – First 4 Verses

Patanjali Yoga - Control of Vritti

➤ By Practice (abhyasa)

- Practice is the repeated effort to follow the disciplines which give permanent control of the thought-waves of the mind
- Practice becomes firmly grounded when it's been cultivated for a long time uninterruptedly with earnest devotion

➤ By Non-attachment (vairagyam)

- Non-attachment is self-mastery; it is freedom from desire for what's perceived through sense organs
- When through knowledge of the Atman, one ceases to desire sense perceptions, that's the highest kind of non-attachment.

Patanjali Yoga – Effects of Thoughts

Classification of Thoughts:

1. Painful Thoughts (klishatas) - Passes into chain of thoughts
Ex: Lustful Thoughts leading to Anger, Jealousy, Bondage & Re-birth
2. Non-Painful Thoughts (aklistah) - Brings light to the darkness of mind
Ex: Thoughts leading to Love, Generosity, Compassion, Unselfishness, Freedom

Practice Stages:

1. Stilling the Painful Thoughts by raising waves of 'Not Painful' Thoughts
With Thoughts of Love, Generosity & Truth to oppose Anger, Desire & Delusion
2. Stilling the (deliberately created) Non-Painful Thoughts
With Thoughts of External World being Superficial & Transient (not Reality),
Ex: Mind of Truly Illumined Men are Calm but not of the Social Reformer

Patanjali Yoga – 5 Causes of Thought Waves

1. Right Knowledge (Pramana):

a) Direct Perception/Experience (Pratakshya):

Example: I see you, You see me

b) Inference (Anumana):

Example: Fire & Smoke

c) Scriptural Testimony (Agama):

Example: Experience & Teachings of the Realized Soul

2. Wrong Knowledge (Viparyaya):

Example: Rope & Snake, Wrong mental makeup, Wrong Judgement

Wrong Knowledge produces Egotism, Likes/Dislikes, Clinging to Life

Patanjali Yoga – 5 Causes of Thought Waves

3. Verbal Delusion (Vikalpa):

Imaginary Reality – No apparent reality to hold on to

Example: Eklavya Story

4. Sleep (Nidra) :

Absence of experience is also a thought - 'I slept well; didn't know anything'

Example: Sw. Brahmananda in Balaram Bose's house

5. Memory (Smriti):

Example: "To remember & recollect exactly as is"

Story of prasad distribution by Sw. Premananda

Patanjali Raj Yoga – Stages of Lower Samadhi

TSC: Time, Space & Causation

SAsmita Samadhi

Step 6: On I-Consciousness

(I-am ness)

SAnanda Samadhi

Step 5: On the Mind

(Bliss)

NirvichAra Samadhi

Step 4:

On Subtle Object without TSC

SavichAra Samadhi

Step 3:

On Subtle Object with TSC

Nirvitarka Samadhi

Step 2: On Gross Object without TSC

Savitarka Samadhi

Step 1: On Gross Object with TSC

❖ Samadhi is a series of stages progressively unfolding the Knowledge

Patanjali Raj Yoga – About Experience

Things necessary for an Experience:

1. Subject (Experiencer) : I-Awareness/Consciousness
2. Object (Experienced) : Object of Experience
3. Mind (Instrument) : Process of Experience

Experience Produces:

1. Knowledge (jnana) : Joyful or Painful experience
2. Reaction (pratikriya) : I like, I dislike

Patanjali Raj Yoga - Savitarka Samadhi

Step 1: Savitarka (Deliberative):

1. Attention is focused on the Gross aspect of an Object
2. Aspirant is aware of Time, Space & Causation (TSC)
3. Fully Aware of the constituents of the Gross aspect of an Object

Results:

1. Fully aware of the Gross constituents (5-Elements) of an Object
2. Can distinguish between Word, Idea and Knowledge

Patanjali Raj Yoga - Nirvitarka Samadhi

Step 2: Nirvitarka (Non-Deliberative):

1. Attention is still focused on the Gross aspect of an Object
2. But not aware of Time, Space & Causation (TSC)

Results:

1. Mind becomes master of all gross aspects of all Objects
2. Mind elevates from Individual to Universal
(Example: Holy Mother is everywhere)

Patanjali Raj Yoga - Savichara Samadhi

Step 3: Savichara (Reflective) :

- 1) Attention is focused on the Subtle aspect of an Object
- 2) Aware of Time, Space & Causation (TSC)

Results:

Full awareness of the Subtle constituents of an Object (Individual Level)
(Example: Sound-Space, Touch-Air, Form-Fire, Taste-Water, Smell-Earth)
(Example: Love, Compassion, Unselfishness, Renunciation)

Patanjali Raj Yoga - Nirvichara Samadhi

Step 4: Nirvichara (Non-Reflective) :

- 1) Attention is focused on the Subtle aspect of an Object
- 2) But not aware of Time, Space & Causation (TSC)
- 3) Aspirant's understanding shifts from Individual to Universal
(Example: Holy Mother's love for all)

Results:

- 1) Mind becomes absolutely Calm, Peaceful (adhyatma prasada)
- 2) Intuitive understanding (ritambhara prajna) comes
- 3) Knowledge of All Objects comes
- 4) With Knowledge comes Power
- 5) With Power goes away dependency on Objects
- 6) Mind becomes filled with Ananda (Higher Happiness)
- 7) Leads to Dispassion (non-attachment to external, attachment to Internal/source)

Patanjali Raj Yoga - Sananda Samadhi

Step 5: Sananda (With Bliss):

- 1) Attention is focused on the Instrument/Mind itself
- 2) Attention is focused on the Bliss (Ananda)
- 3) 'Mind' divides itself into Object & Instrument
(Ex: Sri Ramakrishna's Trident example, Dream etc.)

Results:

1. Understands 'Mind' is the seat of experience
2. Gains control over 'Mind'; able to derive highest bliss from anything
3. Mind transcends Rajas (activities) & Tamas (inertness); reaches Sattva (pure) state

Patanjali Raj Yoga - Sasmita Samadhi

Step 6: Sasmita (“I-am-ness”/I-Consciousness):

- 1) Attention is focused on the Subject: “I-consciousness”
- 2) Reached the Highest state of the Lower Samadhi
- 3) Finest barrier (avidya) exists between Real “I” & Reflected ‘I’
- 4) State of highest consciousness in duality – brahmakara vritti

Results:

- 1) Viveka-Khyati: Discrimination between Real “I” & Reflected ‘I’
Sri Ramakrishna’s Example: Kundalini reaching ‘Ajna’ chakra;
Seeing ‘Reality’ thru a glass case;
Feeling of “Lord, I want to come to you but I’m unable to” comes
- 2) Supreme dispassion comes for worldly life – God alone is Real

Patanjali Raj Yoga – Asamprajnata Samadhi

Transcending from Samprajnata to Asamprajnata :

- 1) No effort is adequate
- 2) God's Grace descends - a special power comes – jAtismaratva
- 3) Memories of past - breaks the glass barrier
- 4) Aspirant merges into 'Reality'

Hymn on Samadhi by Swami Vivekananda

Original (In Bengali)

নাহি সূর্য নাহি জ্যোতিঃ নাহি শশাঙ্ক সুন্দর।
ভাসে ব্যোমে ছায়া-সম ছবি বিশ্ব-চরাচর॥

অস্ফুট মন আকাশে, জগত সংসার ভাসে,
ওঠে ভাসে ডুবে পুনঃ অহং-স্রোতে নিরন্তর॥

ধীরে ধীরে ছায়া-দল, মহালয়ে প্রবেশিল,
বহে মাত্র ‘আমি আমি’ – এই ধারা অনুষ্ণগ॥

সে ধারাও বন্ধ হল, শূন্যে শূন্য মিলাইল,
‘অবাঙমনসোগোচরম্’, বোঝে প্রাণ বোঝে যার॥

Translation (In English)

There is no sun, nor the beautiful moon, nor any light whatsoever.

The entire universe floats through space, phantom-like, a mere picture.

This fleeting universe floats in the firmament of the involute mind;
It rises and floats and again submerges ceaselessly
In the stream of “I”-consciousness.

Slowly, slowly these phantom images have entered the primal womb.

Only the feeling “I”, “I”, flows on in a ceaseless stream.

That current also has stopped; the void has merged in the void, Beyond the realm of mind and speech.
He alone understands whose heart understands.

3	Advaita-prakaranam (All Karikas)	Dissertation on Non-duality - The 'One' (Turiyam: karya-karana vilakshanam) manifesting as world with no real change - Space in jar (ghatakasha) no different from unrestricted space (mahakasha) - Nothing new has come out from mahakasha when we look at ghatakasha - Every change is only imaginary (only in name & form) - For Self, there is no birth, death, transformation etc. – negation of creation (AjAti Vada) - Nididhyasanam - internalization of vedantic teaching – reconditioning our mind
4	Alatasanti-prakaranam (All Karikas)	Dissertation on Realization of Non-dual - Gaudapada takes his stand on the higher plane than causality - Brahman Was, Brahman Is, Brahman will be - Inevitability of rational human being is to accept AjAti Vada rejecting God as creator
